The Dirty Printmakers of America will present the "States of the State: A Contemporary Survey of American Printmaking" limited edition folio of prints from 120 selected artists to represent the United States. State of the States will be exhibited during the symposium and 4 day event. The Dirty Printmakers of America will be printing live and disseminating give-aways.

The Dirty Printmakers of America (DPA) is defined as a collective of professional printmakers who wish to:

1. Promote the education of printmaking techniques as they are continually recreated and transformed by artists & educators practicing in the United States;
2. Promote the awareness of printmaking through exhibitions generated on multiple levels of public awareness: streets & neighborhoods; t-shirts worn and torn; museums and galleries;
3. Promote the democratization of art through the making of multiples in ink which we define as American as Hell. Spread the Ink.
